

Your Most Coveted Technology Is Our Main Priority.

CARLSON, CASPERS, VANDENBURGH & LINDQUIST

CARLSON, CASPERS, VANDENBURGH & Lindquist, a pre-eminent intellectual property firm, counsels sophisticated clients on patent, trademark, copyright, trade secret and high-technology cases.

Its mission is to provide clients with exceptional service and value. No other IP firm in the upper Midwest rivals CCVL's procedural knowledge, technical acumen and trial experience.

Alan Carlson has 37 years of experience working intellectual property cases for plaintiffs and defendants. He's also the first Minnesota patent lawyer to become a fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers.

Philip Caspers has dedicated 20 years of experience to patent disputes. He brings keen business and legal perspectives to each case. A veteran of over 100 patent battles, Phil strategically solves complex disputes for clients.

J. Derek Vandenburg is the appellate lawyer of choice for intellectual property. He has worked on a variety of matters, including patents, trade secrets, design patents and trademark disputes. He clerked at the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit.

Jeff Ali advises and represents clients in intellectual property matters, particularly in pharmaceutical arts. His doctor of pharmacy degree and his pre-law work as a pharmacist enables him to represent some of the world's largest generic pharmaceutical companies in ANDA patent litigation.

Dennis Bremer emphasizes IP litigation and dispute resolution, focusing on patent and trade secret litigation. With his electrical engineering and computer science background, Dennis handles myriad matters, including magnetics, semiconductors, telecommunications, aerospace and agriculture.

CCVL invites patent-savvy companies—large or small—to discover why clients entrust the firm with their most coveted technology. Whether you require counsel on litigation avoidance or need to litigate your case, you cannot be in better company.
